Incident Summary: On 04-23-2017 at 2:58 PM two female suspects entered the Kroger's located at 150 W Sycamore Street. The suspects placed red bull and wine in a shopping cart, exited the front door without paying, and were stopped by employees of Kroger's in the parking lot. The suspects attempted to enter a vehicle parked in the east parking lot. The Lost Prevention Officer was struck in the throat and sternum by one of the female suspects. The second suspect pulled out a knife and stated to him "If you don't let my friend go I'm going to stick you". The females entered a black Chevy Impala and backed out of the parking space. The Lost Prevention Officer was trapped between their car and a van parked next to it and was almost run over by the fleeing Impala. He did not receive any major injuries. One of the managers was able to wrestle the shopping cart and merchandise away from the suspects.

The suspects are described as follows: Susp #1 F/B, early 20's, dark skin, 5'7", heavy set, wearing black boots, blue jeans, green shirt with the word "Good Vibes" on the front, hair up in bun, white outer shirt, Susp#2 F/B, 20's, 5'7", medium build, hair in bun with a head band, black puffy coat.

Copies of the surveillance video are available at the Information Desk at Columbus Police HQ. Please block out all employees and customer faces prior to airing.
